e-TX REMOTE

Specifications

Frequency:	433.39 MHz
Security:	128-bit AES Encryption
Radio Range:	Up to 50 Metres
Battery life:	Up to 3 Years
Battery type:	1 x CR2032 Lithium Battery

NOTE: The first e-TX Remote button coded into a transceiver will set that button number as the only button able to activate that transceiver/channel. To change button allocation for all remotes; take a coded remote and whilst pressing and holding CODE and pressing the new button allocation of choice.

e-Trans 200

Coding Remote

1. To enter CODE LEARN rotate dial clockwise to CODE DEVICE then press PB (Push Button). CODE LEARN will display and green LED will flash indicating coding sequence.
   Screen Display in operational mode

2. Press remote button once > display will show ACCEPT REM 1, then screen will display CONFIRM REM 1. Press remote button again and screen will display REM 1 CODED. You can then follow on with a second remote in which ACCEPT REM 2 will display. If no further remote buttons are pressed, CODE DEVICE will exit back to main screen after 5 seconds.

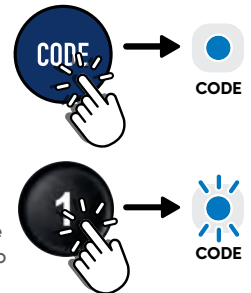

NOTE: First coded remote button selection will set the button allocation for all following remotes. Within Coded Devices sub-menu, under Allocate Button Press PB to enter selection, rotate dial to change button number, press dial to confirm and move to RELAY 2 / BUTTON 2.

e-Trans 20   e-Trans 50   e-Trans 100

Coding Remote

1. To code device press and release CODE button. The blue LED will illuminate
2. To code e-TX Remote, press and release the remote button that you want to activate transceiver once (1 - 4). The CODE LED will flash, indicating the remote has been coded successfully. Now either continue with coding another remote, or press your chosen remote button again to exit CODE learn. You can also exit CODE Learn by waiting 5 - 10 seconds.

e-Trans 20   e-Trans 50

Deleting Remotes

1. Press and hold CODE button for 10 seconds. All LEDs will flash 3 times to indicate all remote devices have been cleared.

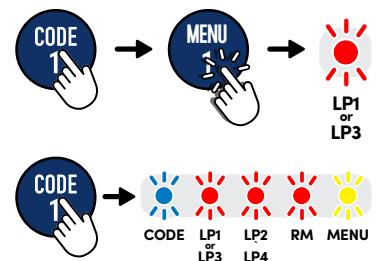

e-Trans 100

Deleting all Coded Devices

1. To delete all devices, press and hold the CODE channel button you wish to delete. After 10 seconds you should see all channel 1 LEDs flash twice for channel 1, or all channel 2 LEDs flash twice for channel 2.

Deleting all Remotes

1. Press and hold the CODE channel button, now press and release the MENU button and 'LP1/3' LED will light up. If this is not correct, then press and release the MENU button again until you are on the correct LED.

2. Once the correct selection has been made, keep your finger on the CODE button until all LEDs on channel flash.

e-Trans 200

Deleting Remotes

To delete remotes, rotate dial clockwise to MAIN MENU then press PB (Push Button). Then navigate to DELETE DEVICE. From here select either: DELETE ALL or DELETE REMOTE. DELETE ALL: Removes All Devices. DELETE REMOTE: You can select either specific devices to remove, or delete all coded remotes.